Notice of Privacy Policy For Pediatric Dentistry

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU MAY OBTAIN ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Your protected health information (i.e., individually identifiable information, such as names, dates, phone/fax numbers, email addresses, home addresses, social security numbers, and demographic data) may be used or disclosed by us in one or more of the following respects, and furthermore, this disclosure does serve notice that:

- ❖ To other health care providers (i.e., your orthodontist, oral surgeon, etc) in connection with our rendering services to you (i.e., to determine the results of cleanings, surgery, etc.);
- ❖ To third party payers or spouses (i.e., insurance companies, employers with direct reimbursement, administrators of flexible spending accounts, etc.) in order to obtain payment of your account (i.e., to determine benefits, dates of payment, etc.);
- ❖ To certifying, licensing and accrediting bodies (i.e., state dental boards, etc.) in connection with obtaining certification, licensure or accreditation;
- ❖ Internally, to all staff members who have any role in your treatment;
- ❖ To other patients and third parties who may see or overhear incidental disclosures about your treatment, scheduling, etc.;
- ❖ Our dental facility operates with an 'open-bay' concept in the main clinic (no partitions or physical visual barriers between patient treatment chairs). This creates a fun and welcoming environment. Patients, their family members, and the staff will be present. Despite our best efforts to operate in a respectful and discrete manner, it is not possible within the practice to guarantee full privacy of all protected health information.
- ❖ To your family and close friends involved in your treatment;
- ❖ We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you;

Any other uses or disclosures of your protected health information will be made only after obtaining your written authorization, which you have the right to revoke.

Under the new privacy rules, you have the right to:

- ❖ Request restriction on the use and disclosure of your protected health information;
- ❖ Request confidential communication of your protected health information;
- ❖ Inspect and obtain copies of your protected health information through asking us;
- ❖ Amend or modify your protection health information in certain circumstances;
- ❖ Receive an accounting of certain disclosures made by us of your protected health information; and,
- ❖ You may, without risk of retaliation, file a complaint as to any violation by us of your privacy rights with us (by submitting inquiries to our Privacy Contact Person at our office address) or the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services (which must be files within 180 days of the violation).

We have the following duties under the privacy rules:

- ❖ By law, to maintain the privacy of protected health information and to provide you with this notice setting forth our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to such information;
- ❖ To abide by the terms of our Privacy Notice that is currently in effect;
- ❖ To advise you of our right to change the terms of this Privacy Notice and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information maintained by us, and that if we do so, we will provide you with a copy of the revised Privacy Notice.

Please note that we are not obligated to:

- ❖ Honor any request by you to restrict the use or disclosure of your protected health information that may violate law;
- ❖ Amend your protected health information if, for example, it is accurate and complete; or,
- ❖ Provide an atmosphere that is totally free of the possibility that your protected health information may be incidentally overheard by other patients and third parties.

This privacy notice is effective as of the January 1, 2021. If you have any questions about the information in the notice, please ask for our Privacy Contact Person and direct your questions to this person at our office address. Thank you.
